

Mid Term review mission for the Higher Education, Science and Technology (HEST) ADB Education V project

The African Development Bank will conduct a Mid Term Review mission for the Higher Education, Science and Technology (HEST) ADB Education V project on 15th June 2016 at Busitema University to assess the progress of the project to date, review relevance of the objectives, review planned activities and financial implications, and work out strategies for enhancing project activities in view of the low disbursement.

The mission will on the same day carry out an inspection of the on- going civil work activities at the Busitema and Nagongera campus.
